BACK TO BASICS

A food and wine-lovers' handbook for a smart, healthy start to the New Year— the ingredients and techniques our favorite chefs and food pros use to push the reset button, plus comforting, fortifying winter recipes. We'll also debut our first-ever cruise package, spanning all the incredible food-and-wine adventures to experience on board.

May

BEACHES (TRAVEL)

From coastal cooking to dreamy beach adventures, F&W takes readers across the globe for our inaugural beaches issue— with beachside feasts to the coastal cocktail scene in Hawaii, Australia, Puerto Rico and more, plus our favorite waterside destinations.

September

WORLD'S BEST RESTAURANTS

A collaboration with Travel + Leisure, we rank the World's Best Restaurants—compiled by a global panel of experts (from chefs to sommeliers), and vetted by an anonymous Global Restaurant Critic. This collection of 25 restaurants will become the definitive guide for our readers and the trade industry as a barometer for dining excellence around the globe.

February

HOME

Bringing the epicurean lifestyle to every inch of your home: Chefs from across the nation share their tool and appliance obsessions, plus a look at the most inspiring trends in contemporary kitchen design.

June

100 REASONS WE LOVE SUMMER

The ultimate celebration of everything we love about summer with a fresh collection of recipes, plus tools, techniques and travel destinations that make the most of sunny days and warm nights—from grilling tips to creative cocktails to vegetable-forward cooking.

October

FRENCH WINE

A deep dive in the ever-dynamic world of French wine—from how to shop for them to 50 great wines at every price point. Plus a trek through the gorgeous wineries of the Jura, a food-lover's exploration of the bistros of Bordeaux and a guide to the best wine bars in the country.

March

MAKERS

A celebration of craftsmanship that shines a light on the chefs, artisans, growers, winemakers, and more who create beautiful, delicious things for our kitchens and homes—from cutting-edge millers bringing heirloom grains to New Orleans restaurants to young entrepreneurs transforming the spice trade.

July

THE RESTAURANT ISSUE: BEST NEW CHEFS & BEST NEW RESTAURANTS

With this blockbuster issue, Food & Wine marries our two biggest franchises—celebrating the most inspiring culinary talent and new establishments to dine out. We debut our first ever survey of Best Restaurants to Work For in the industry, and send executive wine editor Ray Isle undercover as a sommelier to examine wine etiquette in restaurants.

November

THANKSGIVING

A handbook for the year's most spectacular food holiday—the best recipes to make ahead, instant crowd-pleasers and the best tabletop ideas for a holiday makeover. Executive Wine Editor Ray Isle picks the best bottles for a Thanksgiving table; and a star-studded feast in California among the vines.

April

SPRING WINE

We'll unveil the F&W Sommeliers of the Year, highlight the most exciting wine innovations, and tour the Languedoc wine region. Executive wine editor Ray Isle visits a wine and art festival in Chile, and compiles a giant, thrilling list of what to drink next. Plus we review the best wine fridges and the new wave of wine stores across the country.

August

SUMMER ENTERTAINING

The ultimate party guide everyone needs to enjoy the long days of summer, when vegetables are at their most delicious and abundant—filled with simple menus and inspiring recipes, party cocktails and wines for a crowd.

December

HOLIDAY

Our holiday issue pulls out all the stops: We bring readers to a chef's Christmas table, spotlight our favorite trends in holiday cocktails and entertaining, and for the gift-giving season, we offer our highly anticipated annual F&W Gift Guide.
